

Brigidine Education Relief Fund Bursary 2025

Eligibility

The Bursary will be considered on the recommendation of the Principal to the Kildare Education Ministries Board based on the following:

- Evidence of low family income supported by the existence of a health care card or other social security entitlements.
- The existence of low family income but marginally above health care card or social security recipient levels.
- Refugee or immigrant families.
- Students independently supporting themselves.
- Family hardship caused through disabilities existing within the household.
- Families experiencing temporary hardship.
- People experiencing family breakdown with consequent loss of income or relocation expenses.

What will be subsidised?

In keeping with current practice, individual schools will continue to provide fee relief as negotiated with individual families. The Bursary will subsidise (up to the total value of $1500) the uniform and/or part of the Tuition and Resource Fee.
